“CONGRESS AND EVENTS” AT 2,000 METERS

The Gurgl Carat, a stunning architectural masterpiece has now been completed in Gurgl, which is known as ‘The Diamond of the Alps.’ Located in the heart of Obergurgl, the building’s exterior is inspired by the facets of a fine diamond.

Qualities such as the unique location and state-of-the-art technology make the Gurgl Carat an ideal international congress and event centre. This remarkable building is managed by Ötztal Tourismus, the University of Innsbruck, and the municipality of Sölden.

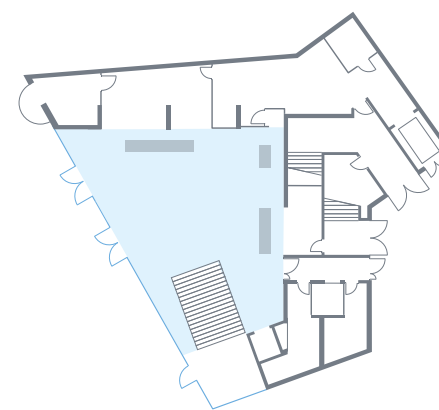

The Gurgl Carat can comfortably accommodate up to 520 people and thanks to its flexible room layout, countless different events. From conventions to conferences, meetings, concerts, balls and regional events. There’s also a dedicated organisational team offering you a superb service at this ideal venue: the Gurgl Carat.

HALL PLANS

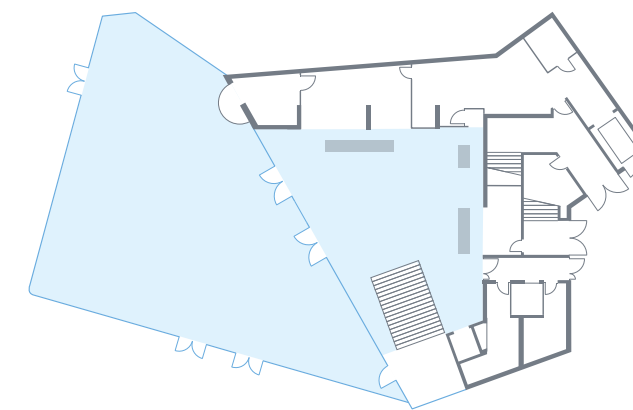

Ground floor

The Gurgl Carat offers the space for many different events on two separate levels. The ground floor has a covered outdoor area that provides additional space if needed, thanks to the flexibility of several moveable elements.
